CALL TO ORDER

President Francine called the meeting to order, followed by the Pledge and the eloquent invocation by Dr. Herb Hicks.

President-elect Gary introduced our sole and honorable guest: Rep. Troy Balderson.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Judy Ross presented a membership recruitment initiative titled, "Minute 4 Membership". The goals of the drive are to (of course) increase membership, as well as connect with some fellow Rotarians that might have been AWOL for awhile (where are you Shawn Phelps...) There will be 10 teams of Rotarians, each quarterbacked by a Past President. Each Quarterback will present a 10 minute Membership Classification Update for each of the next 10 Weeks. Each team will receive points for the team's attendance, as well as bonus points for the so-designated, AWOL members. Rotarians on the winning team will each receive a $20 gift certificate. Good Luck to "Rusty's Roosters" and the rest of the Rotary teams!

DICTIONARIES FOR STUDENTS

Ruthie Ware reminded everyone about the annual Literacy project in our schools. In years past we have supplied Thesauruses to the schools. This year the club will be supplying dictionaries, at teachers' requests. The date for a dictionary label-affixing (tr.v. af·fixed, af·fix·ing, af·fix·es. 1. To secure to something; attach: affix a label to a package. 2. To impute; attribute: affix blame to him) work party will be e-mailed at a later date.

BOARD MEETING UPDATE

President Francine presented the club with details from this past month's Board Meeting:

Unlike our Federal government...we have no deficits.

Brad Lynch will be reviewing the budget and making comments at next month's Board Meeting.

The Board will be inviting Century Investment Group to make a presentation at the next Board Meeting.

The Board approved 2 local donations: Leadership Muskingum and the Zanesville Concert Association.

There was discussion in supporting the recovery of police dog, Bosco, as our Random Act of Kindness.

SERGEANT AT ARMS

Our Sarge, Tom Barone, made his 1st half finale (fi·nal·e (n. The concluding part, especially of a musical composition. [Italian, from Latin fnlis, final; see final) and presented a simple $1 for no pin fine.

PROGRAM

Janet Stewart presented this morning's guest speaker, Terry Martin and his presenter and magician Zack Devoll. Mr. Martin is the Superintendent of the Zanesville City Schools. Zack is a junior high school student and amateur magician. His presentation, Do You Believe in Me, was mixed with some cool magic tricks. "Do You Believe in Me" is the tag for the school levy that will appear on this November's ballot. Mr. Martin also explained the schools' theme this year of Making Excellence A Necessity.

ZANESVILLE CITY SCHOOLS

1/2 AND 1/2

The perspicacious (sorry...you'll have to attend the work party for this one) Max Factor was the lucky winner of the 50/50 drawing. However, he was less serendipitous in finding the "penny" and with it, $754.75.

Have a great week!
