ROTARY FOUNDATION MONTH

Ruthie Ware introduced Tara Craaybeek to kick off Rotary Foundation month.

Tara has been a member of Lancaster Sherman club since 2002, where she has served as in many chair positions and offices including Past President. She is currently serving as Past Chair of the Rotary Foundation. Tara currently serves as the District 6690 Rotary Foundation Program Chair for Every Rotarian Every Year and the Annual Programs Fund. Tara lives in Lancaster, OH.

Tara and Ruthie presented President Francine with her first Paul Harris Fellow. Congratulations Francine!

There are three program areas in the Rotary Foundation. These include educational, humanitarian, and polio plus. These program areas depend on Club contributions to do their work. Tara congratulated our club for being 179% of our goal for giving last year. This is quite an achievement. There are a number of initiatives within these three program areas. They are all very worthy programs of our support. Please visit the District 6690 web page for specific information on the programs as you consider your Every Rotarian Every Year contribution. The future of Rotary is in our hands.

PAUL HARRIS FELLOWSHIP

Ruthie announced that Fred Grant finished his 4th Paul Harris Fellowship. Last year we had 16 Every Rotarian Every Year and our goal this year is 20. We also have a goal of 4 Paul Harris Fellow's and we have 2 to date.

Thanks to Ruthie and Tara for a very inspiring program.
